Franchise Sold by Comptroller Myers at Noon To-Day.

Extension to Be Begun at Once, and Cable Motive Power Used.

Edward Murphy, Jr., a Principal Stockholder of the Successful Company.

Comptroller Myers te-day sold at public ction, in his office, the franchise for the extension of the Ninth Avenue Rallroad from Sixty-ourth street and Columbus avenue to One Hundred and Tenth street, and a branch Columbus avenue through One Hunto connect there with the original Ninth ave-

The tranchise was bid in by the Columbus and Ninth Avenue Railroad Company, a corperation recently organized in the interest of of the Metropolitan Traction Syndicate, which controls the Ninth avenue line.

John D. Crimmins, on behalf of the Houston Street, West Street and Pavonia Ferry Rallroad Company, bid one-eighth of 1 per cent. above the statutory price asked, and Anthony N. Brady bid one-quarter of 1 per cent. for the Columbus and Ninth Avenue Company.

He got the franchise. The statutory reent is that the city receive 3 per cent. of the gress receipts for the first five years of the gross receipts for the first five years and 5 per cent, thereafter.

Mr. Brady is a resident of Albany and a prominent politician there. He said he was the Fresident and John Sager Secretary and Treasurer of the Company. Edward Murphy, jr., is one of the principal stockholders.

The Metropolitan Traction Syndicate was represented by William C. Whitney, John D. Crimmins, George Law, Joseph J. O'Donohue and Lawyer John M. Seribner.

Mr. Whitney was asked why the franchise was bid in by Mr. Hrady, when Mr. Crimmins could have got it for one-eighth of 1 per cent. less, their interests being identical. He replied:

replied:

"You have to make these arrangements if you want to put up $500,000 when our Company, for instance, may not want to.

"The two companies will work in harmony. That must be self-evident. Nobody will put up $500,000 to build two miles or road as an extension to another company's line unless they agreed to pool interests. Further than that I cannot explain."

The conditions of the sale are that the road must be completed within two years, barring probable legal complications, and as an evidence of good faith a certified check for $500,000, which will be forelited if the conditions are not complied with, was deposited.

The check was on the New York Guaranty and Indemnity Company, and signed by Anthony N. Brady. President.

The motive power to be used will be the cable.

John D. Crimmins made the following statehe Columbus and Ninth avenue Rail- avenue is pretty well established.

"The Columbus and Ninth avenue sailroad Company was organized to meet some legal requirments, and to simplify certain other formalilies to be met.

"The Houston Street, West Street and
